Next Week's Program

2nd Quarter Program Director Larry Brenner will dazzle and amaze us with a dynamic speaker. Leigh Weimers a Columnist with the SJ Mercury News.

Last Week's Meeting

We all observed a moment of silence to recognize the unexpected passing of Rotarian Carolyn Leal. It is always difficult to accept the passing of someone you know and see on a regular basis. She will be missed.

After an old guy, Mel Berry, gave an invocation in the character of an even older guy from some ancient movie, we learned that "you can't take it with you".

Stoney Brook won the raffle, some wine and a gift certificate, but I can't for the life of me remember who donated the raffle.

Dave Moeller won the exempt drawing, much to the dismay of the rest of the club.

His Excellency, President Bargetto, bored us with details of the new Rotary Club of Santa Cruz Foundation, which nearly caused a fistfight between Larry Brenner and the Rotary Endowment Board members. Larry then proceeded to repeat what His Excellency reported, only translated into legalize. the new foundation is important and needed and does not interfere with origins already in place, so hopefully the message got out to the club despite the efforts of the Endowment Board members and Larry Brenner. Thanks for all your hard work, Larry!

Next came the detective report, and it was not nearly as interesting as Donna Maurillo's discussion of ladies' panties blowing in the wind in LA. Shouts of "We want Drew!" echoed through the room, as John Lisher finally succumbed and slinked away from the podium.

Tom Bowen, the Athletic Director of San Jose State University, gave a dynamic and informative talk about the new age of athletics at the University, including the more to improve the football program. San Jose State is scheduled to play the NFL's San Francisco 49ers in Tijuana at the end of the season in hopes of becoming the expansion team to be located in Los Angeles...
