Last weeks meeting:

Invocation: Linda Burroughs

Raffle: Janet Krassow won a bottle of Champaign and two beautiful glasses given by Soosan Rigi. Janet thought she could put the wine to perfect use, as Randy is leaving town in a few weeks.

Exempt Rotarian: Dick Muir is exempt for the month of February.

Membership: David Robles has proposed Gavin Kogan for membership. Any member comments must be made to the Club Secretary within 7 days.

Detective: David Heald, completed the classic detective report, with bits of research conducted on various Rotarians. He noted an newspaper editorial from a Board Member of Lighthouse Bank, indicating that "they would rather drink Plutonium that receives TARP funds. Being the accommodating Rotarian that he is (Object # 4 The application of ideal service I each Rotarians personal, business and community life") David delivered two steaming glasses to Lane Lawson and Jim Weisentein, via an agent in a blue space suit.

David then closed in on Tom Fosters now legendary Chinese New Year game, where we all received envelopes and instructions to keep them secured for a year. David fined all those who have opened theirs.

Happy dollars went to Erik Dybdahl who was fortunate to have obtained a building permit, for his own use, from the County of Santa Cruz. (Realizing his mistake the County Planner tried to catch Erik, but he got away).

Program: Annual speech contest

Many thanks to Jennifer Svihus for all of her efforts in rounding up a couple of local high school students for our annual speech contest. We listened to Megan Mackenzie a junior from Harbor High and Cesar Enriquez, a freshman from Santa Cruz High. A diligent panel of judges (slowed by the meticulous arithmetic of Mike Allard and Jim Bargetto) calculated the winner to be Megan, who won a $100.00 check; Cesar took second and a check for $50.00. Megan will now represent our club in the Area 7 speech contest to be held on March 2 at 12:15 during the regular meeting of the Rotary Club of Scotts Valley.
