Today's program:

February 20, 2009: Rebuilding Alliance

Upcoming Events:

Invocation: Kevin Dempsey

Raffle: Janet Krassow won the raffle, but President Randy vetoed the result and demanded a reselection. (Apparently there is a limit as to the number of times Janet can win the prize). This time Mike Vasquez won, and after observing subtle nod from President Randy Mike approached the dais to claim his prize.

Detective:

John Huffman provided an excellent report (over the boisterous chatter of the lubricated Rotarians). John quizzed Linda Burroughs on what the Gates Foundation and Rotary have in common? The answer is Polio; with Gates recently donating $250,000,000.00 towards Rotary Internationals effort to eradicate Polio.

John pointed out that while 1 or 2 million Americans traveled to Washington D.C. to see the Barak Obama inauguration, Donna Maurillo went to Washington at the same time, to wine and dine in the Nations Capital.

Wally Walker was asked which of the United States has the longest coastline. A confident Wally Walker clearly identified Canada as the State with the longest Coastline.

Asking John Burroughs to name two famous American Cyclists, he came up with Lance Armstrong and Tom Foster.

Jim Bargetto was asked who the defending champion of the AT&T is. Displaying a mastery of local sporting events, Jim identified Charleton Heston as the recent winner.

Program:

Adaptability was the underlying concept Darwin relied upon for his Origin of the Species. I am happy to report that when the Santa Cruz Rotary was asked to forgo a "typical" program and meet in the Bar for some refreshments and conversation, they adapted like a finch on the Galapagos. Midway through John Huffman's detective report, President Randy "Opened" the bar by executive degree, mimicking Hugo Chaves care of the people, it was drinks on the house.
