President - Randy Krassow

Guest Editor - Ross Condit

Don't let the picture fool you, this man is dangerous. The good behavior and presidential demeanor is just a ruse to extract money, and get more volunteer hours from us. As he so aptly stated the day he ascended to power "The beatings will continue until morale improves." Just like Obama, the "Change" Krassow promises will only be what is left in your pocket.

Born with an angelic face and seemingly sweet disposition, Randy can be a charmer. Approach this man with caution....

Randy will speak today about his goals for our Rotary year! He is serious about Rotary and wants to have a fun and inspiring year for all of us. Let's wish him well ...

Last Meeting

“Thank you God for Blaine” was the prayer crafted to inspire us by none other than Father Joel Miller. We skipped the welcome song for without Don Munro tickling the ivories, we simply cannot rock.
We were inspired by the announcement that Keith McKenzie left his wife Della stranded at the Costco gas station because he raced off to be on time to Rotary. “She shouldn’t be using public restrooms anyway” exclaimed Keith. Mike Vasquez provided a beautiful bottle of wine and a generous gift card for the raffle.
Your guest editor was lucky enough to win the prize, thank you very much Mike!

As evidence of a slow day of City business, Dick Wilson had time to honor Blaine with a Key to the City and declared it “Blaine Brokaw Day.” This was just the beginning of what was to become Blaine’s kick-out party. Although there were many

Peter Prindle, Val Macken, Janene Adema and Erik Dybhahl from waxing prose. It would be nice to say something good about the poetry, but it spoke for itself. A noble attempt by all!

A slide show of the Rotary year and some good fatherly fun by John Brokaw was well received. Many great photos and snide comments made for a lively program.
Additionally a video of Blaine’s earlier years gave a peak into the life that shaped the man. From an adolescence that included a hair style like Opy Taylor, Blaine managed to navigate through college and marry well above himself with his lovely bride Connie. There was a cameo appearance in the video of Blaine as himself mocking his follicle challenged dome with a skull cap trying to pitch insurance (or was that Mike Allard?).
The program was lots of fun and in good humor honoring Blaine who is indeed deserving of all our respect and admiration.

adjectives used to describe Blaine the one that stuck with me was “Presidential Perkinness.” One might usually associate poetry
with a more intellectual crowd, but that did not hold

History will be kind to me, for I intend to write it...Blaine Brokaw

Val Macken
received the award for Rotarian of the Year! Val is someone who embodies the true spirit of Rotary and received a standing ovation.

“The Gomer Pyle Days Are Gone!”

exclaimed
Randy
Krassow
after the peaceful transfer of power took place. “No more thanks, no smiling” General Krassow barked. Planting the flag which read “The beatings will continue until the morale improves” Randy-man just chuckled.

Lots to look forward to, like Randy’s debunking, this time next year...

If you are going through hell, keep going...
Randy Krassow
