LAST WEEKS MEETING

A Cold and rainy day greeted our members last Friday; but, the Rotarians were looking forward to another interesting meeting. Carol Lezin was the provider of the door prize and also sold the tickets in her usual persuasive manner. Sharon Caiocca maned the attendance desk and greeted visitors. The door prize winner was Donna Maurello's guest, Doug Loisel. He received a beautiful leather bag crafted by Salz tannery. A worthy gift from a member of the Lezin family. There were several visitors and guests. Jeanette Paperino is being proposed for membership and has been visiting regularly. Make a point to introduce yourself to Jeanette. Please excuse the spelling of her name, I know I have it wrong.

John Huffman had his eldest son from Los Agneles along. The Huffman boys were enjoying themselves with all the members.

While the lunch was being served, a film clip was playing about the volunteer work our club did for the Boys and Girls Club. There was a very good turn-out and quite a bit of good work was accomplished. It was also noted, that many Rotarians were present for the Omega Nu "Ducky Derby". Rotarians like to be involved with our community.

The Detective was Alex Fey. As director of the Boys and Girls Club, he presented all the volunteer workers with gifts and an expression of thanks. Rotarians completed many thousands of dollars worth of repair and improvement and Alex thanked the club for the generosity of their efforts. During the Detective report, exempt Mike Al-lard was busy passing out face masks and rubber gloves to ward off possible Swine Flu contamination. Watch for future hyjinx from Mike. The editor wonders of the "Pink Lady" might make another appearance?

The program featured KSCO's Charlie Freedman. His views on the direction our country is going and his opinions regarding our economics were interesting and provoked several questions from the interested crowd. The club enjoyed Charlie's presentation and thanked him for speaking.
