won. While it seems strangely coincidental that Tom has not won in the month of November, we are accepting this turn of events as a statistical anomaly. For now...

Last Meeting

The club drawing was not won by Tom Canfield. This makes several weeks now that Tom has not

won the Exempt Drawing. For you newer members, that means she is exempt from fines by the detective for the month of November. The club has a colorful history of amusing misbehavior on the part of exempt members flaunting their status. While it is not required, such antics are encouraged. To learn more about this, ask some of the more "seasoned" members.

Brian Russ and Jennifer Svihus received their Blue Badges. Congratulations guys, you have met our minimum requirements!

Jeremy Lezin of the Sunrise Club spoke to us about Second Harvest Food Bank. Their needs are as much as 30% higher than last year. Donations of cash and food are needed.

John Dunn received a check and addressed the club about the Harbor High Interact Club, which we sponsor and for which he is the faculty advisor. You may recall what a great job the Interactors did helping out at our Club Barbecue. In spite of being Bruce's son, there were no urology jokes in his remarks.

Our Detective for last week was Dick Wilson. He is a man that can definitely take a joke. Of course, that is his job. He began by asking Sharon Caioca who's the best boss she has ever had. Given that she works for Dick, this should have been easy. Dick put in $20. Isn't there an ordinance against forced pandering? He then fined everyone who has voted in a Santa Cruz city election since 1979. This was a $5 group fine. That's pretty high, but being "pretty high" is not a new concept in Santa Cruz. Perhaps that was his point. He even collected from John Mahaney who was on the council at the time that they hired Dick as city manger. He must have had a prescription. Frank Minuti offered up a generous $20 fine because federal legislation designed to simplify the tax code has made it more complex. Frank referred to it as the "CPA full employment act".

Linda Burroughs was fined for rising home prices. Yes, Linda is responsible for this. There were other gems as well, but they will not be reported here. You really should come to the meetings so you don't miss all the fun.

Last week's program was Rod Diridon, Executive Director of the Mineta Transportation Institute. He spoke in support of a High Speed Rail System for California. He showed slides of HSR systems in Europe and Asia. Not coincidentally, funding for this system was on the ballot in this week's election. It passed.
