LAST WEEKS MEETING

Last Friday's meeting was greeted by Sharon Caiocca and Blaine Brokaw doing the attendance and raffle sales. Jane McKenzie was presenting the program and President Randy was prepared to conduct a fine event.

The raffle prize was won by Michael Paul and was a select bottle of wine and an odd shaped wine glass. Congratulations to Michael and thanks to Blaine for the prize. Sharon was busy checking in the members and greeting the visitors and guests.

Brian King hosted some campus leaders from Cabrillo; Gary Meyer, Coulter White, and Rebecca Villafarna. These students were officers and leaders of several campus honor societies. They surely enjoyed themselves and perhaps we planted a few seeds for Rotary in the future. They especially enjoyed the "Detective Report". Another guest was Willie ____ of the "Second Harvest Food Bank". He invited the Rotarians to come for the annual wrapping of the food barrels, complete with breakfast.

October 11. See Secretary Ian. Michele Anderson hosted Christopher Kirk; an attorney in her firm.

President Randy gave several announcements. Scotts Valley Rotary is having the annual Oktoberfest October 17, 6-10 pm. This is a good event and one you will enjoy. Anne Asche is selling the "Fun Coupon Books", a fund raiser for our club. October 10 th. The Flu season will be addressed by the Rotary Inoculation program. All members, family, and friends are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity.

Tony Condotti was the featured "Detective". Using his lawyer skills, he worked the assembled over quite well. Tony focused on the previous evenings debate between the Vice Presidential candidates; and, mostly Governor Palin. Donna Maurello gave a very convincing parody of the Governor. Very funny and everyone enjoyed Tony's presentation. His court experience served him very well.

Larry Wolfsen sold two sets of 49 er. tickets for the benefit of the charity fund. Carol Lezin and Layne Lawson received Blue Badges in record time. Congratulations to them.

President Randy acknowledged Barclay Brown for 50 years of membership; and, Barclay was presented an appropriate plaque. Congratulations to Barclay.

Jane McKenzie introduced Patricia Sapone, Deputy Chief-of-Police as the program. Chief Sapone gave a general over view of the police activity in Santa Cruz. Busy days are Halloween, New Years Day, and Fourth of July. Also, Tour of California is coming to town and will bring a great many visitors and bike enthusiasts to Santa Cruz. She mentioned that gang activity is endemic in the central coast of California and requires constant attention. A Very Good Program
